RECTOR'S REFLECTIONS (Bob's Bit)

Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. But each in turn: Christ, the first-fruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. 1 Corinthians 15. 20-23

At Easter we celebrate Christ's victory over death. By raising Jesus from the dead God the Father vindicated Jesus' sacrifice on the cross and assured Christians that we shall also be raised one day as part of his future harvest.

In this magazine we look back to Christmas activities and the more recent events of Shrove Tuesday and Thinking Day and look forward to Easter services. Please join us in St Mary's if you can. Happy Easter!

Carol Singing around the Town

On Tuesday 3rd December we met at Kirriemuir statue at 6pm. We met up with Marjorie, Anna, Glenda the artist, Bob Harley Minister, Kenny John Logan and her dad, Celia, me and Caroline.

First we went to sing to Clare and her husband in their house.

Then we went to the blue pub near Kenneth Ramsay's Workshop. Then we went to the ice-cream shop, then to the Hair and Beauty shop and then we went to the TV shop and then we went to the wool shop, and next we went to the pubs in the Little Roods and then we went to the Chemist where I picked a song to sing and then we went up to the big co-operative then we went to the jewellery shop across from the post office and then we went to The Gairie Inn then we went to the Thrums. Then we went to the Garden shop and then we went to the shoe shop and then we went into the pink shop and then we went to the ironmongers and then we went to the small co-operative but no customers so we went to the 88% shop and finally we went to the Wendy house to sing to them so we raised £200 and 20 pounds and on the 13th of December we are decorating the Christmas tree at St Mary's church in Kirriemuir at 2pm. Marjorie is doing the oranges for Christmas Eve service on the 22nd of December.
